

Labour Force Diversification 101 Presenters

Tom Lusic: Immigrant Attraction and Retention Wellington County, is a registered immigration consultant with an extensive background in the settlement field.

May Ip: Making Grey Bruce Home Project, while Project Coordinator, she helped to develop, test and implement a pilot program to support the social and economic integration of refugees and vulnerable newcomers in rural regions.

Dr. Gezahgn Wordofa: International Trade Consultant & Refugee Resettlement Specialist, founder of the Multicultural Association of Perth-Huron, located in Stratford.

Lindsay Hayter: Human Resources Manager at Hayter Farms, where they employ 110 team members that are a mixture of family, tenured staff, millennials, new Canadians, and Temporary Foreign Workers from around the globe, which presents some major recruitment challenges.

Ed Bosman: Owner of Crimson Lane Farms, Pork Producer, a strong advocate for hiring newcomers, currently hires directly from the Philippines and is happy to share his experience.

Shannon South: HR Manager Golden Valley Farms Inc., as the Human Resources Manager, she recruits as far as the GTA, working with multiple agencies, utilizing foreign and domestic workers in order to meet current labour demands.